23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Live Stewardship

"Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we in Stewardship can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Teaching Mass:

In the coming months, we will enhance the Sunday Liturgy by providing teachings aimed at deepening our understanding of the Sunday Eucharist. Numerous online resources are available for further review. Over the course of this year, one of our key objectives is to foster a better understanding of the mass and to encourage broader participation in this vital tradition—regarded as both the source and summit of our faith journey.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults:

RCIA will begin on Thursday, September 11 at 7:00 p.m. The sessions will take place in the parish office boardroom; please enter through the east door. If you know anyone who is interested in joining the Church or who is missing one of the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, or Eucharist), we warmly invite them to participate.

"Prayer is not dangerous":

This statement is one response to the legislation regarding the banning of public prayer in the Province of Quebec. The legislation has led to various reactions among the public. At the heart of the objections is the fundamental unease with the concept of secularity as proposed by Premier Legault. The Quebec bishops have expressed reservations about the merging of a secular state and a secular society.

Margaret Heaslip, Maureen Funai, Lillian Bradley, Paulette Chennette, Marie Springhall, Paul O'Grady, John Leman, Maureen Clulee, Deacon Chris Moffat, Frances Grandbois, Richmond Guillermo, Ken Taylor, John Lebrun, Donna, Wanda Hartlin, Lynn Kealey, Luca, Carolina DiRienzo, the seniors at the Ravines and at Stirling Park, those who are isolated, lonely and scared and those suffering from mental illness, Covid, and RSV.

HORIZONS OF HOPE

Horizons of Hope is a Catholic Perspective on Palliative Care, presented by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Do you ever wonder about the end of life and our Catholic teachings? Are you or a loved one facing a terminal illness and seeking guidance, support, and resources?

St. Augustine's Parish invites you to participate in a meaningful learning experience through the Horizons of Hope: A Toolkit for Catholic Parishes on Palliative Care. Rooted in our faith in Jesus Christ, this program offers spiritual and practical insights into living well until the end of life.

Program Overview

Through four interactive modules, participants will explore: Understanding the dying process; Discernment and decision-making at the end of life; Accompaniment and compassionate care; Building Compassionate Communities.

This program is ideal for parishioners, caregivers, family members, and anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Catholic teachings on palliative care.
