Together
IN MISSION

FOR OUR GOOD AND THE GOOD OF THE WHOLE WORLD

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 18/19, 2026

In today's second reading, Saint Paul bids us to take comfort in knowing that when God invites us to pray to him, he knows our true needs, even if we do not. The Holy Spirit intercedes and prays for us even if we can't come up with appropriate words; even when we don't have a clue what to ask for. We are not left alone. Good stewards know that prayer is an important part of living a life in Christ. The important thing is to make space for God. Do we let God into our hearts? Do we make room for the Holy Spirit to pray within us?

Modesty in Dress Attire

Every year about this time we remind folks of the fact that we as Christians are "in the world, but not of the world". This pertains to every aspect of our lives, from the political party for whom we vote, our stance on protecting life in all of its phases, our call to stewardship of time, talent & finances, as well as the way in which we cover "the temple of the Holy Spirit" which is our bodies. The secular world is highly sexualized and not least in the so-called fashions of the day. Young men want to direct attention to their bottoms by letting their pants fall as low as they possibly can without falling off, shifting their pants upwards every few seconds or holding them with one hand and walking as if they just had an accident in their pants. Many girls and young women have never been taught that their bodies are sacred and are to be covered as we cover anything that is a treasure. In other words, Christians should never dress suggestively and certainly not when they attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Readings for the Month of July:

Giving Thanks for Summer

Father, Creator of all, thank you for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank you for the beauty we see all around us and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank you for the increased time we have to be with our families and friends,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.
Draw us closer to You this summer.

Teach us how we can pray
no matter where we are or what we are doing.
Warm our souls with the awareness of Your presence and light our path with Your word and counsel.
As we enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you. Amen.
