APRIL 2, 2023 - PASSION (PALM) SUNDAY /A Domenica delle Palme: Passione del Signore /A— 2 aprile, 2023

From the Administrator's Desk...

Once again, we find ourselves on the doorstep of Holy Week, the most important week in our Liturgical Year. This is the week in which we commemorate the passion, death, and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Our celebrations during this week take on a bit of a different character, as we journey with Christ through the events of Holy Week. We begin Palm Sunday with the blessing of Palm Branches, singing "Hosanna to the Son of David!" as we recall the Lord's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Through the reading of the Passion Narrative, we recall why Jesus chose to go to Jerusalem.

On Holy Thursday, we remind ourselves of the importance of being a servant, as we commemorate Jesus' command to wash the feet of others. We remember that true leadership is expressed through service and sacrifice, as we also recall the Institution of the Holy Eucharist as an everlasting memorial of Christ's passion and death. We then journey with Christ to the garden, where we watch and pray in silence.

On Good Friday, the sense of loss is palpable. All of the normal elements of our liturgy are stripped away, as we solemnly commemorate the Lord's passion, venerating the wood of the cross, "on which hung the saviour of the world." And yet, even though our rituals on this day are marked with a somber tone, there is still a sense of hope that is expressed. We know that the cross and the tomb are not the end of the story.

On Holy Saturday night, we gather in darkness. And it is from that darkness that new light bursts forth. A new fire is blessed, the new paschal candle is lit, and we boldly proclaim that Christ is the Light of the World, which darkness cannot overcome. Recalling Christ's resurrection from the dead, the Elect who have been preparing for initiation into the Church receive the Sacraments, and receive new life in Christ, who is truly risen from the dead. Our sense of joy is so strong that we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord for fifty days!

As we journey through this week, I encourage you to spend some time in prayer, journeying with our Lord through the events of this week. Please keep the many members of our RCIA program who will be received into the Church this Easter in your prayers as well. May this annual commemoration of the Paschal Mystery be a source of blessing and spiritual growth for us all.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Youth and Family Ministry News

"EASTER in a BAG" - Thank you for your generous support of this food drive for the St. Vincent de Paul Councils of the Windsor Heritage Catholic Family of Parishes! A BIGGER THANK YOU to the children of all of our WECDSB feeder schools who decorated the lunch bags with images of Lent/ Easter and Spring. Thank you to—YOU— our parish community for so generously supporting this effort. (There is need year-round, so please donate when you are able). See FB and Instagram and the WHCFOP website for a "gallery" viewing of the Easter in a Bag artwork.

FIRST RECONCILIATION SACRAMENT—Thanks to Fr. Steven and all of the Reconciliation Families for a beautiful and graced Sacramental Ceremony on Saturday. It is so important to receive the love and forgiveness of God through Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please Pray for these families as they journey towards the start of First Communion classes after easter.

"GLOW in the DARK" FAMILY STATIONS of the CROSS —A huge thank you to the parish and families and volunteers that attended this simple "family" style time of devotion and reflection. We are grateful to the Knights of Columbus for the Soup station and their ongoing support to our Parish Family.
