The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time—February 17th, 2019

From the Parochial Vicar's Desk...

As I write this message, I am sitting at my parent's house in Albuquerque, New Mexico, reflecting on the wonderful events that have taken place over this past weekend. Many people have asked me how I felt, and what was going through my head throughout the celebration of the Ordination and my First Mass as a Priest.

Truth is, it is very hard to put into words the range of emotions that I felt throughout the course of this past weekend. However, throughout the course of all of the celebrations, there was one thing that was abundantly clear: God was present throughout all of it. There were moments that brought tears to my eyes, and moments where I was grinning from ear to ear. There were reunions with friends that I hadn't seen in years, and celebrations with family members- all of it thanks to the Grace and Mercy of God.

As I was offering my reflections at the end of my First Mass, I remarked that it is God who calls each of us to our vocation in life, and who equips us to do the work that he is calling us to do. The question that we are called to ask ourselves is this: are we placing our trust in the Lord? Or are we trying to "go it alone" and trust only in ourselves?

Our First Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah this weekend warns us of the dangers of trusting only in ourselves, while at the same time showing us the blessings that those who trust in the Lord will receive. This is a very fitting passage for me to reflect on as I begin my Priestly Ministry. It reminds me that the work that I have undertaken is not for my own glory, but for the Lord's.

The challenge here is the same for me as it is for all of us: to allow the Lord to work through us, so that his blessings may fill not only us, but all those we meet. This is where cultivating a regular discipline of prayer is important. It is in prayer that we learn to hear the voice of the Lord, and answer his call.

And so, I ask you to continue to pray for me, as I will continue to pray for you. May the Lord help all of us to continue to listen to his call, and lead us to more faithfully place our trust in him.

—Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Reflection for the Week

In following the Beatitudes, Jesus, fill my heart with your vision of life. Teach me to be content with riches or poverty, with good times and bad. Lord, give me only your love.

Jesus Youth will hold the next prayer group gathering at Assumption Parish on Sunday February 17th, 2019.

There will be a Jesus Youth Meeting every 1st and 3rd Sunday of each Month after 7:30pm mass.

All are welcome.

Contact: Abin Joseph 226-975-4019 or
Ajin Jose 519-965-2650.

Congratulations

FR. STEVEN HUBER, C.S.B.

May God bless Fr. Steven in his priesthood with the assurance of his unending love and guidance, and in his ministry with the spiritual gifts and charisms best suited to meet the needs of the people he serves.

Our love and prayers are with you Fr. Steven as you begin your priestly ministry among us.

We are blessed to have you!

- Are you interested in supporting people who are learning about the Catholic faith?
- Would you like an opportunity to participate in fruitful conversations about Catholic life and teaching?

If you can answer "Yes!" to these questions it may mean that God is inviting you to participate in an RCIA group with someone inquiring about joining our faith family!

Please contact Jean Beneteau with your interest so that further information can be shared.

"Attitude Adjustments on our Family Walk to Easter" will be out next Intergenerational Luncheon event to be held on Sunday, March 3rd, after the 11:00am mass in Rooney Lounge, until 3:30pm.

The program is for all ages and open to all parishioners, and will guide our preparations for observing the Lenten season with others in our midst, including our families.

All who attend are asked to commit to the entire afternoon program ending by 3:30pm.

Please RSVP to Jean Beneteau at jbeneteau@dol.ca, or register online through the parish website.

Please come and join the Young Adult Café for food, fellowship, friendship, fun and faith, after 7:30pm mass on Sunday February 24th.
The Café will be offered the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month.

All are welcome!

Join us for the next Catholic Life Group on Monday, February 18th, from 6:30pm-8:00pm in Rosary Hall.

This is a very informal conversation group that benefits from sharing the application of the Gospel to our everyday lives. Catholic Life is a great way to gain support for living our faith in the modern culture. All adults are welcome!
