JANUARY 28th, 2024 - FOURTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

4a DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO — 28 GENNAIO, 2024

From the Administrator's Desk...

Our readings this weekend remind us of the importance of listening to God's voice, and allowing Him to guide us to holiness. Perhaps this is clearest in the response to our Psalm: "O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord. Do not harden your hearts!"

The message of this Psalm, and of our other readings, reminds us that God's word comes to us in ways that we do not expect, and that sometimes the message is one we would rather not hear. For the one who speaks God's word, sometimes the message is also difficult to proclaim!

When it comes to listening to and speaking God's word, our challenge is to not allow our own pride and ego to get in the way. Both pride and ego can harden our hearts to the truth of God's word, and cause us to miss the heart of the message.

Sometimes, our biggest challenge is to remember that we are in the world, but we are not of the world. This is what St. Paul is reminding the Corinthians of in today's second reading. St. Paul seems to have a very negative view of Marriage, but this was due to the fact that he believed that Christ's return in glory was imminent. 2000 years after St. Paul wrote this letter, we can understand his words in a different way, by reminding ourselves that the purpose of Sacramental Marriage is not to seek earthly pleasure, but rather to help our spouse to get to Heaven. Keeping this in mind will help us to live by the spirit of St. Paul's words.

Even if we are not married, we can understand what St. Paul is saying by asking ourselves if our words and actions are drawing attention to ourselves, or pointing to God. If we are more concerned with being liked than we are with proclaiming the truth, we run the risk of distorting the Gospel message. We are called to allow the Holy Spirit to guide our words and actions, so that everything we do, we do for the Glory of God, and not for our own gain.

To give glory to God for his action in our lives is a characteristic of the virtue of humility. When we live a humble life, we remember who we are before God, and we remember that we are created in his image and likeness. Remembering this also helps us to treat others with greater respect, since all humanity is created in the image and likeness of God. As we draw near to the Season of Lent in just a few weeks, I invite you to explore how God may be calling you to grow in humility during this holy time.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Assumption University's Campus Ministry program will be hosting a monthly Mass at Assumption Hall in their student lounge (2nd Floor of Assumption Hall, 400 Huron Church Road, Room 200). After the Mass, there is a free lunch for all students/staff.

The first Mass will be on Tuesday January 30, 2024 at 12:00 Noon followed by a pizza lunch. It will be a votive Mass for St. Thomas Aquinas. Fr. Steven Huber, CSB will celebrate. All UoF and Assumption University students/staff are welcome. Please RSVP by January 29th to jlemmon@assumptionu.ca.

Family and Youth Ministry News

SACRAMENTS OF FIRST RECONCILIATION AND FIRST COMMUNION: The REGISTRATION HAS OPENED ONLINE for these Sacraments. There will be hard copy forms in each church beginning the weekend of JANUARY 27/28, 2024. There is a brief INFORMATION MEETING for PARENTS/CAREGIVERS on SUNDAY FEBRUARY 4, 2024, at ASSUMPTION PARISH after 11 am MASS. Please contact Lynne Tibor for further details.

HELP NEEDED! WHCFOP Family Ministry is looking for "HELPING HANDS" (knitters, crocheters, crafters) to fashion palm-sized "sheep". "What do they look like? Is there a pattern? What are they for?". We are looking for - YOU - to come up with ideas! They will be given to FIRST RECONCILIATION children on the occasion of their First Confession in March. Ideally "palm sized" and "stuffed" sheep or lambs would be great! (First Reconciliation Families do not tell your children!) (Can't "craft"? Perhaps you can pray for this initiative or donate supplies - keep us in mind!) Lynne Tibor ltibor@dol.ca 519 253 2493 x227.

PRAYER SERVICE FOR FAMILIES PREPARING FOR SPRING SACRAMENTS: Please watch this space for an opportunity for the entirety of the WHCFOP to come together to pray for our families preparing for FIRST RECONCILIATION and FIRST COMMUNION in the SPRING. It is important to support these families who are the future of our faith!

FAMILY REFLECTION FOR THIS WEEK: "Never miss an opportunity to make a kid feel better about themselves. When they feel good, their whole demeanor changes. They learn better, behave better and act better towards others". from Christine Deregowski, Writer.

The Catholic Women's League of St. Angela Merici will have its first meeting of the year on Tuesday, February 6th at 1:00 p.m. in the basement of the Church. New members are welcome to attend and join us in prayer and dessert. Dues for 2024 are due in the amount of $40.00 and can be paid at the meeting.
Lucia Truant, President

How is God calling you to draw closer to him through service?

Is he calling you to be a minister of the Eucharist?

We are inviting anyone who is interested in becoming a minister of the Eucharist at any of our Family of Parishes communities to come forward for training in late February. If this is a ministry you would like to hear more about or would like training for, please contact Jean at jbeneteau@dol.ca or by phone. Details regarding the training will appear in the bulletin soon.

Could you help others with transportation to Sunday mass? Our parishes have many new faces, and many that have issues with transportation to church, particularly in the winter. If you are someone who wouldn't mind picking up, or dropping off other parishioners, please let Jean (jbeneteau@dol.ca) know. We would like to have a list of people who would like to help in this way.
