From the Administrator's Desk...

Listening to the Parable of the Sower as a child, I used to always wonder why the sower wasn't more careful when scattering the seed on his fields. If he had paid a bit more attention, or planted the seed in neat rows, wouldn't he have been able to maximize his investment? Wouldn't he have been able to yield a larger harvest, generate more profit, and reap greater benefits from his labour?

As I have gotten older, though, and as I have learned to more fully appreciate Jesus' words after the parable, I've realized that approaching the parable in this way is to be a person who sees, but does not perceive, and who hears, but does not understand. Focusing only on the worldly implications of the parable, and asking questions about what the sower should have done differently is to miss the deeper point that Jesus is trying to make.

Jesus' meaning becomes clear when he explains the parable to his disciples. The key to understanding Jesus' message is to understand that the seed represents the Word of God. Jesus teaches us by his life that the Word is freely spoken to everyone. Jesus does not calculate and plan exactly where his word will go, or go to great lengths to ensure that he is only speaking to those who will receive his message. His word is spread far and wide, and whether that word takes root or not will depend on the disposition of the hearer.

I believe that there are two lessons for us to take away from this parable. The first centers on the importance of asking ourselves what we need to do to ensure that our lives become the "good soil" that bears the fruit of the Word of God, and multiplies that word in our own words and actions. What cares, fears, worries, and concerns do we need to root out, in order to allow God to permeate our lives? Once we have addressed this question, and we begin to participate in the work of sharing the Word of God as disciples, we are ready for the second lesson. This lesson reminds us that not everyone we meet will receive the Gospel with great joy. The parable reminds us to not become discouraged when the Word of God does not take root in another person's life, but to instead continue to focus on our mission to proclaim the Word of God through our lives.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Youth and Family Ministry News

HELLO FAMILIES! I am praying that you are all well and finding time to rest and enjoy these warm summertime days. There are a lot of ideas and ministry coming up in the months ahead and in order to prepare we are looking to "stock" the cupboards once more. Crayons, coloured pencils, markers and erasers would be greatly appreciated. This is a perfect way to "purge" that craft cupboard or empty "end-of-the-year" school backpacks and pencil cases at home! Collecting boxes will be set up through the summer in each of the WHCFOP Church entrances. Simply drop items into the box provided. (New supplies are welcome too!) If there are any questions, please contact Lynne Tibor at ltibor@dol.ca or 519 253 2493 x227.

SUMMERTIME FAMILY ACTIVITIES! Plan an Evening Picnic Choose a night with clear skies to enjoy the outdoors. While picnics can be fun in the middle of the day, summer evenings can provide reprieve from heat and sun. Grab a blanket, a picnic basket, and pack some sandwiches along with a cooler of drinks. Enlist the help of each family member in gathering supplies and preparing a meal. To begin your picnic, pray together. Take the opportunity to thank God for the gift of healthy food, the beauty of Creation, and the joy of family. Bring along a children's Bible and share Scripture stories together after enjoying your meal or make up a prayer to thank God for the day. Fireflies appear just as the sun goes down - watch for them! Pause and listen to the sounds of the evening, birds, crickets, tree frogs, etc. It is a wonderful way to reflect on the day and get ready to rest.
