JUBILEE 2025 FAITH RESOURCES

The Roman Catholic Church observes the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women on November 25th. This is not a separate day created by the Church, but an annual observance established by the United Nations that the Church, including the late Pope Francis, fully supports and participates in to raise awareness and call for action. The Declaration on the Elimination of Violence Against Women issued by the UN General Assembly in 1993, defines violence against women as "any act of gender-based violence that results in, or is likely to result in, physical, sexual or psychological harm or suffering to women, including threats of such acts, coercion or arbitrary deprivation of liberty, whether occurring in public or in private life."

Although men and children – both girls and boys – may be victims of domestic violence, overwhelmingly the victims of domestic violence are women. Responsibility for prevention and for responding to the victims cannot be left to our social service organisations – a Church response must include action by parish communities.

- Canadian Government Update on Intimate Partner Violence: This resource updated in August of this year, is a presentation on intimate partner violence in Canada and presents what it is, facts about it, the impact on women and current statistics.
- To Live Without Fear: This resource from the Permanent Council of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops is a statement on violence against women. Although written in 1991, it is still relevant today even if the statistics are older.
- Prayer To End Violence Against Women: This is a resource from The Education For Justice website.

Family Ministry News

FAMILY REFLECTION - SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST - KING OF THE UNIVERSE Understanding today's Feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While we may not have a direct experience of kings or royalty, we have some sense of what these mean. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdom. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. Christ is King in a way that is different from traditional understandings of royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the Cross, in which he offers salvation to all. Recall with your children stories that you may have read about royalty. Talk with your children about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a king. Talk about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a subject. Tell your children that this Sunday is the last Sunday in the Church Year, and on this Sunday, we celebrate a special feast called the Feast of Christ the King. Read today's Gospel, Luke 23:35-43. Reflect together on how the various people in this Gospel respond to Jesus on the Cross. Who in this Gospel recognizes Jesus as King? (the thief) What does Jesus promise the thief as a result? (The thief will be with Jesus in paradise.) A fun activity is to make "crowns" out of paper and decorate them with crayons and markers. Have the children wear their "crowns" in remembrance of the Kingship of Jesus Christ and that they are sons and daughters of a King! (Sourced partially, Loyola Press)

CONFIRMATION This week the young people finish their preparations and receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is an important step in their faith lives. Keep them in your prayers!

This week's "Mission" Thought as we go forward into a new liturgical year is from a new book about Pope Francis called "Our Treasures Within". This book celebrates the gifts we carry and how they can make the world a more hopeful place. It says this "All of you have a box, like a treasure chest inside. And the word for you is to open up the chest, take out the treasure, make it grow and give it to others." Pope Francis The book is by Peter H. Reynolds - a perfect Christmas gift! Have a great week and see you in church. Lynne Tibor CPM CYM
