Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 14th, 2018

From The Pastors Desk...

I write this from the airport in Tel Aviv, preparing for the long flight home—knowing that I will be back in Windsor before you read this. Our pilgrimage has been a powerful experience. We have seen many things, and met many people who work for peace. The last part of our time in this land has been more spiritual. We stayed at the Sea of Galilee and visited places where Jesus taught and ministered: Tabgha, where he multiplied the loaves and the fishes, the Primacy of Peter, where he commissioned Peter, and then after the resurrection fed the apostles on the shore. We went to Nazareth, where the angel Gabriel visited Mary, and the Word was made flesh because of her “yes”. We spent time in Capernaum, where Jesus gave the Bread of Life discourse, and where he healed the centurion’s son. We had a retreat afternoon on the Mount of the Beatitudes. We met Archbishop Elias Chacour, and heard his story of how his family lost everything when the Israeli forces took over their village.

When Jesus walked this land the Romans were occupying it. His first followers were longing to be free, to be treated as equals. Today the situation is strikingly similar for Palestinians, whether citizens of Israel or in the West Bank. Our group has often asked “Why?”; we hear many answers. In this weekend’s gospel passage, Jesus quotes the commandments that have to do with how we treat other people—and then goes even further by telling the rich young man to give what he has to the poor. It is so darn easy for me to look at other people, whether as a society or as individuals, and see where they fail to live up to these commandments. Yet the real challenge is to look at myself and see how I measure up. I am reminded of the words of Etty Hillesum, a young Jewish woman who was killed at Auschwitz: “And I believe that I will never be able to hate any human being for their so-called “wickedness,” that I shall only hate the evil that is within me, though hate is perhaps putting it too strongly even then. In any case, we cannot be lax enough in what we demand of others and strict enough in what we demand of ourselves.” May we always demand the best of ourselves... and be slow to judge others.

J. Maurice

Reflection for the Week

Fill us with your love, O Lord, that we may rejoice and be glad.
(Psalm Refrain)
Jesus said “Why do you call me good? No one is good, but God alone. You know the commandments.”

Is the Holy Spirit prompting you to come and learn about your personal vocation?
Do you want to know your place in the Church’s mission to the world, and about the charisms God gives to help you fulfill that mission?

Starting this Thursday October 11th, the “Called and Gifted” Program from Catherine of Siena Institute is being offered in Rooney Lounge from 6:30-9:00pm. This is a 5 week program to learn about the role of the laity in the church and discern your own spiritual gifts and charisms, given to you for the benefit of others. Each evening will include prayer, presentations, small group conversation and reflection. Participants are expected to attend all sessions, or make arrangements to make up what you missed.

Note there is no cost for Assumption parishioners!
To register now, call Jean Beneteau at the parish office.

All the gifts our faith community needs are within the people. We are building up our ministry teams for sure, and it is wonderful to witness the joy and enthusiasm with which our ministers come to serve.

However, all of us are called to identify and share our time, talent, and treasure with our community. We continue to invite new people to the ministries of greeter, usher, and the food and fellowship team.

There will be a training workshop on Wednesday, October 24th from 6:30-9:00pm in Rooney Lounge, for those in these ministries who did not attend the one held on Saturday, September 29th.

Please inquire about serving as a greeter, usher, or food and fellowship minister by contacting Jean Beneteau at the parish office.

Your gifts are appreciated!

Pastoral Plan Goal: “Recruit and train 50 new liturgical ministers...” and we are working on achieving that goal!

Perhaps God has a plan for you in fulfilling one of the liturgical roles of the laity if you are not already doing so. On November 3rd, there will be a training and formation workshop for the extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist from 9:30am-1:30pm in Rooney Lounge. This workshop will include all the current Eucharistic ministers and all those who are new to the ministry. It is truly a gift and a privilege to offer the gift of the Eucharist to others. It is a moment of encounter with Christ in each face, and each hand that is extended to receive him. As a fully initiated Catholic, in good standing with our Church, you are qualified to train for this particular ministry.

If you would like to explore this ministry further, please contact Jean Beneteau at the parish office, and save the date for the upcoming workshop. Let us pray that those who are called to this ministry come forward, so that our community will continue to serve one another, and be blessed with many different people contributing, to the ‘work of the people’, which is the liturgy.

The Catholic Life Group meets on Monday, October 15th at 6:30pm to 8:00pm in Rosary Hall. New faces are always welcome to join our evenings of conversation on the impact of our Catholic faith in our lives. Come join us for some meaningful dialogue. The gatherings are every other Monday evening, though it is not necessary to make a regular commitment.
Come when you can and you will be welcomed!

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday!

Every parish across the globe will celebrate this event. It is a global sign of the Universal Church and mission. On this day, Pope Francis invites all Catholics to contribute to a special collection for the Propagation of the Faith. Your support will help missionaries in proclaiming the Gospel of joy and peace around the world. Please join in this special day that unites Catholics from all over the world through prayer and care for the Church's mission.

Your donations will support churches, hospitals, schools and train seminarians and religious Brothers and Sisters in Asia, Africa, Latin America, Pacific Island and some of our Canadian dioceses.

RESOURCE FOR OCTOBER 22 ELECTION: CHOOSING A GOVERNMENT

On Monday, October, 22nd we will be voting for a mayor, city councilors and school trustees.

Choosing a Government, developed by the Assembly of Catholic Bishops of Ontario, is a resource to help Catholics connect their faith with their voting decisions. It offers basic principles of government and questions to ask of candidates' platforms.
