OCTOBER 15, 2023 - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time /A
28a DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO — 15 OTTOBRE 2023

From the Administrator's Desk...

How do we understand the mercy of God? Today's parable about the wedding banquet gives us some insight into God's mercy, and our response to the gift we are given. It helps us to see how we are called to respond to God's mercy, by living our lives in a way that we will be found worthy to enter the wedding feast.

The invited guests represent the leaders of the Jewish people- the ones who openly rejected the message of mercy and salvation that Jesus came to preach to the world. The gift of salvation was freely given, but because they chose to reject it, their end will be destruction.

In response to this rejection, the King sends his servants to gather whoever they can find, and invite them to the wedding feast. This is a clear parallel to what we read in Isaiah in our First Reading, when we hear of the Lord providing a feast for all nations on His mountain. It is a reminder to us that God's mercy is meant for all, and that all are welcome to join in the wedding banquet in the kingdom of heaven.

How then, do we make sense of the man who is thrown out for not wearing a wedding garment? If God's mercy is endless, how could this person suddenly be deemed not worthy to be present? The answer lies in the fact that God's mercy demands a response. It is not enough to just show up, or to think that we can just keep living our lives in the exact same way as we did before we accepted the invitation to follow Christ. Our response is our conversion- our effort that we make to follow the ways of the Lord, and keep his commandments. It doesn't mean that we have to be perfect, or figure everything out about the Christian life instantly. It just means that we need to do what we can to be faithful to God, and live in response to his love. If we make that response, we will be found worthy to remain at the marriage feast of the Kingdom of Heaven.

As we journey throughout this week, take some time to ask the Lord how you can better accept the invitation to discipleship, and the invitation to receive his mercy. Ask Him to show you how He is calling you to respond to his mercy, so that you can be found worthy to enter the wedding feast of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Baptisms last weekend for; Genevieve Sinclair, Leon Lafontaine, Iris Bucacas Menor and Kean Ragutana.

We pray that their lives of faith will be nurtured by a community of disciples that has a constant presence in their lives.

St. Angela Parish Town Hall:

Thursday, October 19th following the 7:30pm mass at St. Angela. Our parish is at a crossroads, and it is time for action. A plan has been prepared to revitalize the parish and deal with serious financial and attendance issues that have been trending downward for several years. We need to know if there is support for the plan and if you are prepared to the work necessary to secure the future of the Parish. We have received a very, very large donation that will fund the plan and we have the support of the diocese. But both the donor and the diocese need to see real support. Your first opportunity to show that support is by attending this meeting.

Thank you for your support in our annual Thanksgiving Appeal. There is still time to support it by putting an envelope in the collection basket marked "Thanksgiving Appeal" or by visiting our website.

Daily Mass Cancelled:

Due to Priest Study Days in London, Morning mass at 8:00am in Rosary Chapel on October 17th and 18th is cancelled as well as the evening mass at St. Angela on October 17th.

An invitation to all women of our Family of Parishes

The Catholic Women's League of St. Angela Merici Church will be having a Christmas dinner on Tuesday, December 5, 2023 at the Hall to be catered by Spago's and all women are invited to attend. Further details to follow in the coming weeks.

Bible Study at St. Alphonsus is on the move as we enter the Fall and Winter seasons Starting October 4th and continuing until the Spring, Bible Study at St. Alphonsus will take place at 10:30 am on Thursday in the meeting room opposite the parking lot. This will allow noon Mass attendees to drop in.

Remember, our study is not overly academic. It is not a course where understanding depends on having attended any previous week. So, drop by any time. We follow along with the Church readings. We will be starting the Church years (year B) in Advent. So, now is the perfect time to get on board. Please call Dcn. Gerard with any questions at 519-253-2493 ext. 236.
