Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 21st, 2018

From The Pastors Desk...

Each time I go to the Holy Land I come face to face with how people suffer. Whether I am serving with Christian Peacemaker Teams, or helping to lead a pilgrimage like I just did, I see unjust systems; I see people who suffer unjustly. I also see people who struggle against injustices and who bring hope. One of the most difficult realities we human beings have to face is that of suffering, whether at the hands of others or due to things like illness. Why do people hurt one another? Why do we get sick? Why do we die? It just doesn't seem to fit with the notion of a loving God. The Bible wrestled with this notion as well. The prophet Isaiah wrote four passages about God's "suffering servant" (part of which we read this weekend); that is the image the early Church used for Jesus. Somehow that suffering can be seen as redemptive. The Letter to the Hebrews talks about Jesus, our "great high priest" as able to sympathize with our weaknesses because "in every respect [he] has been tested as we are, yet without sin".

Julian of Norwich (1342-1416), the great British mystic, said that Jesus is a "handsome mixture". She talks about his face speaking of "a knowledge of life's delight and a knowledge of life's pain.... It is not a face that is naïve to the world's sufferings or to the personal experience of sorrow. Nor is it a face that is so overwhelmed by sorrow that it loses its openness and wonder.... It is a soul that has experienced the heights and the depths of human life...." From another perspective, Etty Hillesum (who I quoted in last week's message) wrote, "I am with the hungry, with the ill-treated and the dying, every day, but I am also with the jasmine and with that piece of sky beyond my window...."

I think that is the challenge of the Christian: to find the good amidst the bad, the joy intermingled with the sufferings of the world, and then to help spread that joy. Then we are truly serving others, as Jesus talks about in the gospel passage this weekend. Our leadership is that of service, and of bringing light into suffering. That is one reason that I am so grateful for the outreach and the service we already do here at Assumption, and why I am so committed to expanding that, with programs like Intentional Discipleship and our Assumption Cares that we will be rolling out over the next months. I pray that each of us may be that face of Jesus in this world.

J. Maurice

All the gifts our faith community needs are within the people. We continue to invite new people to the ministries of greeter, usher, and the food and fellowship team.

There will be a training workshop on Wednesday, October 24th from 6:30-9:00pm in Rooney Lounge, for those in these ministries who did not attend the one held on Saturday, September 29th.

Please inquire about serving as a greeter, usher, or food and fellowship minister by contacting Jean Beneteau at the parish office.

Your gifts are appreciated!

Today, we are invited to celebrate our mission's vocation, to pray for the people who are actively engaged in mission, and to generously contribute to our worldwide mission solidarity fund through this collection.

Your gift helps:

- People in remote villages, towns and cities, through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests;
- Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick and orphans through the services of religious Sisters and Brothers;
- To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family; Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer your prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today and be as generous as you can on World Mission Sunday

Employment Opportunity—The Diocese of London Catholic Cemeteries in Windsor/Essex County is seeking a full-time Grounds Supervisor. Details for this and other positions are available at www.dol.ca/employment.

Eucharistic Ministers Workshop Coming Soon!

On November 3rd, there will be a training and formation workshop for the extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist from 9:30am-1:30pm in Rooney Lounge.

This workshop will include all the current Eucharistic ministers and all those who are new to the ministry. It is truly a gift and a privilege to offer the gift of the Eucharist to others. It is a moment of encounter with Christ in each face, and each hand that is extended to receive him. As a fully initiated Catholic, in good standing with our Church, you are qualified to train for this particular ministry.

If you would like to explore this ministry further, please contact Jean Beneteau at the parish office, and save the date for the upcoming workshop. Let us pray that those who are called to this ministry come forward, so that our community will continue to serve one another, and be blessed with many different people contributing to the liturgy.
