JUBILEE 2025 FAITH RESOURCES NEW THIS WEEK

The resources presented this week refer to Pope Leo's first Apostolic Exhortation on love for the poor called Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You). We are all encouraged to read this document and reflect on it. Pope Leo reminds us that our faith and love for the poor cannot be separated. He invites us (the church) to make a preferential option for the poor, not as an act of charity alone but as an essential part of our encounter with Christ. Included are both the document itself and a synthesis of it, as the document is quite lengthy. Also included - some commentary on it as well as some quotes from it for personal reflection.

- Pope Leo's Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You): This resource is the complete official document from the Vatican
- Synthesis of Pope Leo's Dilexi Te: This resource from the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development presents a short summary of the document.
- 3 Key Take Aways from Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You): This resource from Word on Fire reflects on three important document elements.
- 12 Quotes from Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You): This resource from OSV News gives us 12 quotes from the document to pray with and reflect on.
- 9 Things to Know about Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You): This resource from OSV News presents what the writer sees as key themes in the document to ponder.

Family Ministry News

FAMILY REFLECTION: In the family, there is sometimes a level of competition between children for parent attention, for acknowledgment of their abilities. Somehow, children seem to internalize that the attention given to one member of the family diminishes the attention given to another. In this way, children can often sound like the Pharisee in Jesus' parable. Parents who provide continual reminders to their children that they are loved for who they are, not for what they do, help children develop a healthy spirituality. As a family, talk about what it means to compare oneself to another. Is it helpful to compare oneself to another? In what ways might this be positive? (when it motivates one to use one's talents) In what circumstances might this be unhelpful? (when it proves discouraging, when it prevents one from valuing the abilities of another). After reading today's Gospel, Luke 18:9-14, discuss what was wrong about the prayer of the Pharisee? How can we emulate the prayer of the tax collector? Pray together as a family in thanksgiving for the blessing that is each member of your family. Pray that your family will be free from unhealthy competition. Pray in thanksgiving that God's love for us is unconditional. (Sourced: Loyola Press)

TRUNK OR TREAT: So many of you to thank for your help with this year's Trunk or Treat. Feeding Windsor for 200 "ball park" hot dogs, Kevin McQuaid and the entire parking lot team for their help is setting aside a safe area for the event. Popcorn courtesy of St. Alphonsus Cares, countless young adults from the "Aspire" program from the University of Windsor who helped out at crafting and colouring tables, Confirmation candidates and families who not only contributed and attended, but filled the 200 treat bags with chips and candy as part of their service piece last weekend, Allison Sadowski who donated time at the ever popular face painting table and the K of C of our Parish family. Books donated at Assumption Church were given away for free! This event was promoted to the West End schools - Immaculate Conception, St. James, Assumption High School and Middle School, and the wider parish community. Look at what we can do when we come together as a Family of Parishes!

CONFIRMATION: Lessons continue this weekend with a look at "Jesus, the Way, the Truth, and the Life" by all of the Confirmation families. The group also handled a tough conversation on "What makes a 'perfect' Confirmation Candidate? (Parent? Sponsor?). The families helped out at the Trunk or Treat the day before and continued Service pieces with the youth serving all roles at the 7:30 pm Family Mass. Please encourage and pray for them as they journey forward. Have a blessed week, see you all in church!
