From the Pastor's Desk

We rejoice today in the Resurrection of Jesus. His Resurrection reminds us that even in our darkest moments, there is always hope and a promise of renewal and transformation. Christian hope is belief in the promises of God, knowing with absolute assurance that what God has done in the past He can do for you today. Our hope is not wishful thinking or optimism, our hope is alive and comes from the Resurrection! May we live each day with this hope in our hearts and lives!

I will be embarking on a pilgrimage to Italy from April 14 - April 25 with a group from Toronto. I will visit Venice, Florence, Siena, Assisi, Monte de San Angelo (place of St. Padre Pio), Rome, and the Vatican. I look forward to some time away from the parish, and some time with two of my younger sisters who will also be joining this pilgrimage. Fr. Pawel and Fr. Malcolm will take care of the parish duties while I am away, and the parish office will hold any messages for me until I return. Please keep me in your prayers, and I will remember you all in my Mass each day.

Fr. John

RCIA

We joyfully celebrate the baptism and full reception of all who participated in RCIA this year. The pastoral team is grateful for those who served as godparents and sponsors, giving heart felt support and encouragement week after week. The delight of the Lord is evident in the lives of those who now share in our faith and pray that God may continue to guide them to be faithful and active participants.
