FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT
(1ST ShareLife Sunday)

April 3, 2011

Working wonders in our community

"You don't have to look far to see the wonders being worked by ShareLife...

in your neighbourhood, in the homes on your street, in the pews of your parish. Last year, the network of ShareLife-funded agencies reached out to over 250,000 people in our region and assisted countless more in developing countries around the world. They fed the hungry, sheltered the homeless, protected the meek and cared for the sick. In 42 municipalities, in 225 parishes, and in more than 20 languages, people received professional, faith-informed and compassionate care as a result of our generosity."

— Most Rev. Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto

Today is ShareLife Sunday.

Please give generously. You can work WONDERS!

Examining My Conscience
During Lent

O Holy Spirit, help me to see myself honestly, that with your grace I may begin to connect my faults and appreciate the life you have given me. Amen

Am I determined to avoid sin, no matter what it is, for the sole motive that sin is an offense to God, to the Father?

Is my attitude determined and clear when tempted?

Am I convinced that sin is never a small thing, even a venial sin? Am I determined to avoid every deliberate venial sin?

Are there any faults which I do not try sincerely to correct or for which my purpose of amendment is too weak?

Do I fight all the inclinations to sin, especially in my desires and aspirations?

Do I examine my conscience seriously? Do I try to discover the roots of my faults?

Do I ask the light of the Holy Spirit to enlighten me concerning my faults? Do I pray to the Holy Spirit to deliver me from the illusions of my self-love?

Do I humbly acknowledge all my faults? Or does an interior shame prevent me from acknowledging some of them?

Do I excite in myself perfect contrition for my sins committed, sorrow for having offended the divine Love?

Is the sorrow or the regret for having displeased the Father stronger in me than the fear of hell?

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Saviour instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again, and so to entrust to his beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of his death and resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a Paschal banquet 'in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.'"

(Sacrosanctum concilium, CCC 1323)

By celebrating the Last Supper with his apostles in the course of the Passover meal, Jesus gave the Jewish Passover its definitive meaning. Jesus' passing over to his father by his death and Resurrection, the new Passover, is anticipated in the Supper and celebrated in the Eucharist, which fulfills the Jewish Passover.

(CCC 1340)

"In the most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist the body and blood together with the soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ are truly, really, and substantially present."

(Pope Pius IV)

"The Eucharist must become the centre of our lives."

(Pope Benedict XVI)

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me; Body of Christ, save me; Blood of Christ, inebriate me; water from the side of Christ, wash me; Passion of Christ, strengthen me; O good Jesus, hear me; within Thy wounds hide me; suffer me not to be separated from Thee; From the evil enemy defend me; In the hour of my death call me, And bid me come unto Thee, That with all Thy Saints I may praise Thee for all eternity. Amen
