RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FOR OUR YOUTH: THE CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD OPENING THIS FALL AT BLESSED TRINITY

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is an approach to the religious formation and development of children from birth through adolescence that originated in Rome in 1954. Integral to the CGS is the Atrium, a prepared environment where the children have access to catechetical materials specially designed to foster a contemplative response to God's Word. It is rooted in the Bible, in the liturgy of the Church, and in the educational principles of Maria Montessori.

Blessed Trinity will be opening an atrium for the level 1 program of the CGS, serving children ages 3-6, in October 2014. The sessions will run weekly from October to May.

We ask those interested in registering their children to pick up a registration form from the church office, and submit before May 1, 2014. Spaces are limited. If you are looking for more information on the CGS, please visit blog <http://catechesisofthegoodshepherd.wordpress.com> where you will find answers to FAQ, and an electronic copy of the registration form.

COMPUNCTION

(My Daily Bread – Confraternity of the Precious Blood)

Compunction is a deep lasting sorrow for your sins. It is not a gloomy nor depressing sorrow, but an intelligent admission of your sins and a sincere determination to do something about them. Since compunction comes from a realization of how you have failed so good a God, it brings with it a readiness to accept anything from [God's] Hand.

Compunction opens the way to many blessings and precious graces. When compunction fills your soul, the world will lose its magic attraction and will become more distasteful to you. Compunction will help you realize how quickly earthly joys pass away, while eternity goes on forever. You will see clearly that your sins have offended [God]. One who has genuine compunction is honest enough to admit his sins, and is truly sorry for them. His sorrow is proved by his sincere efforts to be rid of his faults...

By compunction a man begins to attack his faults and to practice the opposite virtues. I can be sure of my sincere sorrow only when I have begun to do something about my faults. Compunction is a lasting sorrow because it is not an emotion, but rather an intelligent admission of facts. It shows me my faults, God's goodness, and my own need to change for the better. Then it helps me undertake the daily task of abandoning my faults and acquiring the opposite virtues.
