TCDSB Staff Arts presents Opening Night

February 4, 5, 11, and 12, 2011
Brebeuf College School Theatre, 211 Steeles Avenue East, North York.

Opening Night is a comedy by Canadian playwright Norm Foster which tells the story of Jack and Ruth who are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Ruth has lucked in to two tickets to the opening night of a new Canadian play - a dream come true for Ruth, but an imposition for Jack who would rather be at home watching the World Series. After the antics both on and off stage that night, their lives and those of all involved are forever changed.

TCDSB Staff Arts is a non-profit community theatre group composed of present and retired staff members of the Toronto Catholic District School Board, including teachers, education assistants, secretaries, child and youth workers, principals, custodians and board administrative staff.

Tickets - adults: $17.50 students: $10.00. For more information please contact 416-222-8282 ext. 2787 www.tcdsb.org/staffarts.

HUMAN RIGHTS BEGINS WITH HUMAN LIFE

January 18-25

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

“Pray without ceasing””The invitation St. Paul addressed to the Thessalonians is still timely. In the face of the shortcomings and sins that still prevent the full communion of Christians, each one of these exhortations has retained its relevance, but this is particularly true of the order “pray without ceasing”. What would the ecumenical movement become without the personal or communal prayer that “they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you” (Jn 17:21)? Where would we find the “extra impetus” of faith, hope and charity, of which our search for unity has a special need today? Our desire for unity must not be limited to isolated occasions; it must become an integral part of our whole prayer life. Men and women formed in the Word of God and in prayer have been artisans of reconciliation and unity in every historical period. It was the way of prayer that opened the path for the ecumenical movement as we know it today. Indeed, from the middle of the 18th century various movements of spiritual renewal came into being, eager to contribute through prayer to the promotion of Christian unity. Groups of Catholics, enlivened by outstanding religious figures, played an active role in such initiatives from the outset. Prayer for unity was also supported by my Venerable predecessors, such as Pope Leo XIII, who in 1895 was already recommending the introduction of a Novena of Prayer for Christian unity. These endeavours, made in accordance with the possibilities of the Church of that time, intended to put into practice the prayer spoken by Jesus himself in the Upper Room “that they may all be one”

Homily of His Holiness Benedict XVI January 25, 2008

Eternal Father,
we praise you for sending your Son
to be one of us and to save us.
Look upon your people with mercy,
for we are divided in so many ways,
and give us the Spirit of Jesus to make us one in love.

We ask this gift, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
