Across our whole parish we are sad to see Msgr. Sheehy and Fr. Mah leave our midst; Msgr. Sheehy, 47 years a priest, for a well earned sabbatical and Fr. Mah to take up a new assignment as Associate Pastor at St. Leonard's Parish, Brampton.

Msgr. Sheehy and Fr. Mah will celebrate the 12:15 p.m. Mass on Sunday, June 22, 2014, which will be followed by a reception in the parish hall where everyone is invited to extend their best wishes.

"O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body.... Bless their labours with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and in heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown."

St. Therese of Lisieux

The Importance of a Father

St. Joseph was strong in the face of adversity and poverty of his time. He is a model of the virtues of prudence, humility, strength and fortitude. Even though Joseph is "silent" in Scripture, his actions speak to us more clearly than recorded words. Just as Joseph resigned his own will to the will of God, so a good father walks the path as God sets it out for him. The greatest gift any father can give to his children is lifelong fidelity to his Marriage Covenant. Children learn about love through a father's affection, prayer, honour, self-control, forgiveness and integrity.

"St. Joseph showed Jesus all the natural love, all the affectionate solicitude that a father's heart can know"

..... St. John Paul II

Happy father's Day

THE COMMON GOOD

Source: Catechism of the Catholic Church #1906-1912

By common good is to be understood "the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily" (GS 26(1)). The common good concerns the life of all. It calls for prudence from each, and even more from those who exercise the office of authority. It consists of three essential elements:

First, the common good presupposes respect for the person as such. In the name of the common good, public authorities are bound to respect the fundamental and inalienable rights of the human person. Society should permit each of its members to fulfill his vocation. In particular, the common good resides in the conditions for the exercise of the natural freedoms indispensable for the development of the human vocation, such as "the right to act according to a sound norm of conscience and to safeguard . . . privacy, and rightful freedom also in matters of religion" (GS 26(2)).

Second, the common good requires the social well-being and development of the group itself. Development is the epitome of all social duties. Certainly, it is the proper function of authority to arbitrate, in the name of the common good, between various particular interests; but it should make accessible to each what is needed to lead a truly human life: food, clothing, health, work, education and culture, suitable information, the right to establish a family, and so on (cf. GS 26(2)).

Finally, the common good requires peace, that is, the stability and security of a just order. It presupposes that authority should ensure by morally acceptable means the security of society and its members. It is the basis of the right to legitimate personal and collective defence.

Solemnity The Most Holy Trinity

"Most holy Trinity, Godhead indivisible, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, our first beginning and our last end, you have made us in accord with your own image and likeness. Grant that all the thoughts of our minds, all the words of our tongues, all the affections of our hearts, and all the actions of our being may always be conformed to your holy Will. So may we, having seen you veiled in appearance here by means of faith, come at last to contemplate you face-to-face, in the perfect possession of you forever in heaven." Amen.
