Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions

It had been two years since Adam spoke in full sentences. When he moved into Covenant House's housing program, he would only say a word or two. Over time, a youth worker succeeded at connecting with Adam and he gradually opened up. Adam finished high school and joined a mentorship program, setting his sights on a career in computer science. With his new voice and positive relationships, his future is open to so many possibilities.

Amen.*

Association of Hebrew Catholics
The Fellowship of St. Joseph presents

Adrian Ciani, Professor of History St Augustine's Seminary: "Spiritually, we are all Semites: American Catholics Confront the Holocaust". American Catholic leaders were outspoken in their denunciation of Nazi and fascist racial and anti-Semitic policies, a voice of solidarity and moral clarity which only grew louder during the Second World War itself. Their response, in fact, demonstrated a passionate and unreserved support of the Jewish people during the darkest days of the Holocaust, and paved the way towards postwar trends which brought Jews and Catholics ever closer together. An examination of primary sources with explanation will be shown to be both interesting and redemptive. Tuesday, May 14th, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Contact: ahctoronto@gmail.com
