Book of Remembrance

We are all welcome to write the names of our deceased loved ones in our Book of Remembrance located in the foyer this weekend through November 1st and in the church, throughout the month of November. All names will be remembered during Masses throughout November, the month of All Souls.

Special All Souls' Day Mass

On November 2 at 7:00 p.m., we will gather for our All Souls Day Mass to remember and pray for all the faithful departed. Together, we will honour their memory and entrust them to God's loving care.

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

For the month of November, the 'All Souls Day' envelopes will be left on the tables at the back of the church. Please remember the souls by listing the names of your loved ones on the back of the envelope and then dropping it into the collection basket. We will be praying for all the souls during the month of November.

Please join us on Sunday, 8 November at 11.15 am for Fr. Joe's installation mass as pastor of our parish. We are also excited to welcome Bishop Kasun who will be presiding over the mass.

REFLECTION

Many Catholics have adopted the Penal substitution approach when it comes to Christ's death on the Cross.

This theory was advocated by some of the Reformers of the 16th Century wherein it asserts that Jesus became legally guilty for all of the world's sins. On this account, the crucifixion is about God the Father pouring out His wrath on the Son, because divine wrath is what our sins deserve.

This penal substitution is problematic for a couple of reasons.

One, if Jesus has already borne the punishment for all sine for all time, why do we still suffer and die even after our sins have been forgiven?

Two, if Jesus were truly supposed to endure the punishment that sinners deserve, wouldn't that require Him to experience the pains of Hell eternally and just for a few hours on Calvary?

Three, punishing a person who is innocent for the crimes of the guilty violates the principles of justice. This wrongly introduces opposition in the Trinity. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are a communion of Persons united in a flow of infinite love. Furthermore, the Trinity is immutable, without any potential for change in its way of being. It is impossible to pit one Person of the Trinity against another as Punisher against the Punished, even for an instant.

Four, it doesn't make sense to speak of the God-man experiencing the pain of damnation. After all the worst pain of Hell is the despair that comes from knowing you are eternally separated from God. This is metaphorically incoherent to speak of the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity experiencing this kind of despair.

The above was taken from "Love Extravagant: Jesus on the Cross" by Curtis Mitch; and "The Saving Sadness of Christ" by Clement Harrold.

RESTORING OUR SPIRITUAL HOME CAMPAIGN

A friendly reminder to parishioners who made a pledge to the Restoring Our Spiritual Home campaign to make sure that your payments are up to date. We continue to gratefully accept pledges.

2027 MASS INTENTIONS

The parish office is now accepting requests for 2027 Mass intentions.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Visit our Parish Hall on November 7th (2-6pm) and 8th (8-1pm) for our annual St. Bernard's Residence Christmas Bazaar. Browse a wonderful selection of unique crafts, handmade ornaments, knitted and crocheted items, and enjoy a cup of coffee with some delicious baked goods. Admission is free, and all proceeds will go toward supporting the retired priests, nuns, and laypersons residing at St. Bernard's Residence, located at Bathurst and Finch in Toronto. Donations to St. Bernard's Residence are also welcome. Tax receipts will be issued for donations of $20 or more.

PAG UPDATE

We invite everybody to consider Pre-authorized Giving Plan in your donation. It is easy, convenient and provides continuous support to the parish when you are away. This also allows the parish to budget better and reduces paperwork. You can always make changes to it as your budget allows. Please contact the office to enroll for Pre-authorized Giving.

EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

Are you looking for a meaningful way to serve your parish community? What a beautiful opportunity to deepen your faith and take an active role in the celebration of the Eucharist by assisting in the distribution of Holy Communion. We welcome volunteers for all Mass times. If you feel called to this ministry or would like to learn more, please reach out to the Parish Office.
