Knights of Columbus

Knights Parish Italian Dinner Dance: Thank you to everyone who came out and made the evening such a success. The parish contribution in helping to set up for the night and clean up afterwards was greatly appreciated. Your generosity for the raffle, auction and sponsorship program helped the Council raise more than $8,000 for charities.

Right to Life Christmas Cards: This week-end in the church foyer, Right to Life Christmas cards will be sold after all Masses. All proceeds will go to the Toronto Right to Life Association.

Parish Memorial Mass

Our Annual Mass for the deceased, whose funerals were celebrated here at Blessed Trinity during the past year, will take place on Tuesday, November 5, at 7:00 p.m. A candle bearing the name of the deceased will be on a table in the foyer. These will be lit just after the homily and one or two members of the family are asked to bring it up to the altar. There will be refreshments in the parish hall afterward. Everyone is welcome to the Mass for our deceased.

"BE MY WITNESSES"

JOIN the Kolbe Eucharistic Apostolate's KNOW YOUR FAITH SERIES course "BE MY WITNESSES". Challenge your lifestyle. Reflect on Pope Francis' Letter "The Light of Faith". Discuss what the "New Evangelization" means and learn what Church documents say about it. Watch inspiring DVDs and consider how to respond to Christ's personal call to YOU in today's culture! Classes are held in the parish hall on Saturday, 9:45 am – noon, October 19 – December 7. Everyone is welcome to join at any time.

St. Joseph's Morrow Park High School
Wednesday, October 30, 2013 at 7:00 pm.

ALL SOULS DAY

Saturday, November 2, 2013
The Commemoration of All Souls

“Purgatory is a place of purification – During the month of November the Church invites us to pray more insistently and offer suffrages for the souls in Purgatory. Pope John Paul II encourages us: We feel bound by charity to offer those brothers and sisters who have experienced the fragility proper to human existence the help of our vigilant prayer. May whatever residue of human weakness still remaining in them to delay their happy encounter with God be definitively wiped out.

To enter into eternal life it is necessary that we be purified of all sin. A soul stained by venial faults cannot enter the dwelling place of God; nor the one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the book of life of the Lamb. St. Catherine of Genoa writes: No one is barred from heaven. Whoever wants to enter heaven may do so because God is all merciful. Our Lord will welcome us into glory with his arms wide open. The Almighty is so pure, however, that if a person is conscious of the least trace of imperfection and at the same time understands that Purgatory is ordained to do away with such impediments, the soul enters this place of purification glad to accept so great a mercy of God. The worst suffering of these suffering souls is to have sinned against divine Goodness and not to have been purified in this life. This waiting room of heaven is not a lesser hell, but a place of preparation where souls are dully cleansed of the remains of sin before entering heaven.

The inclination to sin we acquire through original sin is increased by personal sin. If one has not sufficiently expiated any specific offences against God during the course of our present life, there is further need for reparation to be accomplished. In the first place, evil dispositions may remain, rooted in our soul at the hour of our death. There is, too, the temporal punishment left over from sins forgiven in confession. Furthermore, lack of love and refinement in dealing with our Lord can also defer our union with him. If our transgressions are not eliminated by a constant and generous purification in this life, we will perceive these faults with absolute clarity at the moment of death. Together with a strong desire to be united to God we will possess a tremendous yearning to be free of our evil inclinations. Purgatory at this time is the only possibility of achieving this purification.”

*“In Conversation with God”
Francis Fernandez*

FAITH AND UNDERSTANDING

(source: Catechism of the Catholic Church #157-159)

What moves us to believe is not the fact that revealed truths appear as true and intelligible in the light of our natural reason: we believe "because of the authority of God himself who reveals them, who can neither deceive nor be deceived" (Dei Filius: 3 DS 3008). So "that the submission of our faith might nevertheless be in accordance with reason, God willed that external proofs of his Revelation should be joined to the internal helps of the Holy Spirit" (Dei Filius: 3 DS 3009). Thus the miracles of Christ and the saints, prophecies, the Church's growth and holiness, and her fruitfulness and stability "are the most certain signs of divine Revelation, adapted to the intelligence of all"; they are "motives of credibility" (motiva credibilitatis), which show that the assent of faith is "by no means a blind impulse of the mind" (Dei Filius: 3: DS 3008-3010).

Faith is certain. It is more certain than all human knowledge because it is founded on the very word of God who cannot lie. To be sure, revealed truths can seem obscure to human reason and experience, but "the certainty that the divine light gives is greater than that which the light of natural reason gives" (St. Thomas Aquinas, STh II-II 171, 5, obj. 3). "Ten thousand difficulties do not make one doubt" (John Henry Cardinal Newman, Apologia pro vita sua (London Longman, 1878) 239).

"Faith seeks understanding" (St. Anselm, Prosl. proem. PL 153 225A). It is intrinsic to faith that a believer desires to know better the One in whom he has put his faith, and to understand better what He has revealed; a more penetrating knowledge will in turn call forth a greater faith, increasingly set afire by love...

Faith and science: "Though faith is above reason, there can never be any real discrepancy between faith and reason. Since the same God who reveals mysteries and infuses faith has bestowed the light of reason on the human mind, God cannot deny himself, nor can truth ever contradict truth." (Dei Filius 4: DS 3017).
