FROM THE PASTORS DESK

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We have walked together through the most sacred days of our faith—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and now Easter.

On Holy Thursday, we saw Jesus kneel down and wash the feet of His disciples. The Lord of heaven became a servant. He gave us the Eucharist—His Body and Blood—and showed us that love is not just words, but humble service.

On Good Friday, we stood at the foot of the Cross. We saw love stretched out... wounded... pierced... and yet forgiving. Jesus did not run away from suffering—He embraced it for you and for me. The Cross tells us this powerful truth: You are loved... even at your worst... even in your brokenness.

And today—Easter Sunday—everything changes. The tomb is empty. Death is defeated. Hope is alive.

This is not just something that happened 2,000 years ago. This is for us—today.

Whatever burdens you carry... whatever struggles you face... whatever darkness you may be walking through—the Risen Christ is speaking to your heart:

“Do not be afraid. I am with you. I bring you new life.” This Easter, our parish is especially blessed. Sixteen of our brothers and sisters have entered into full communion with the Church. What a beautiful sign of hope! What a powerful reminder that God is still calling, still touching hearts, still transforming lives. Dear newly received members, your journey is an inspiration to all of us. You remind us that faith is alive, that God is still working, and that it is never too late to say “yes” to Him.

But Easter is not only their story—it is our story. Each one of us is called to rise:

To rise from sin to grace
To rise from fear to faith
To rise from darkness to light

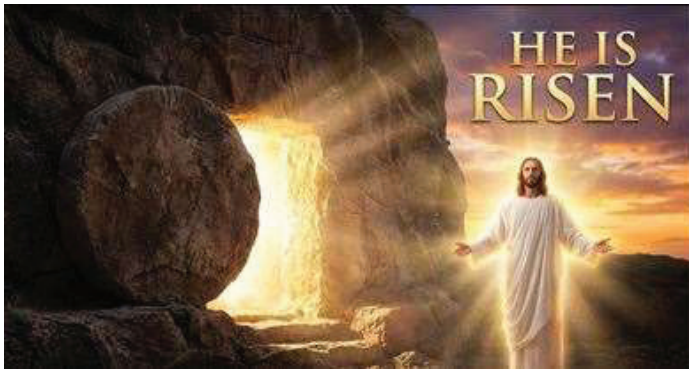

My dear friends, do not leave Easter in the church building. Take it into your homes. Take it into your families. Take it into your daily life. Let your life proclaim: Christ is risen! He is truly risen! May the joy of the Risen Lord fill your hearts, renew your faith, and strengthen your hope.

A blessed and joyful Easter to all of you.

Fr. Jibin Joy, MCBS
Pastor, St. Anthony of Padua Parish.

APRIL 5TH – APRIL 11TH 2026

As we celebrate the glorious Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, we, the parish staff, warmly extend our heartfelt Easter blessings to you and your loved ones. May this sacred and joyful season fill your hearts with deep peace, renewed hope, and the abiding love of Christ. We are truly grateful for your presence in our parish community. May the radiant light of the Risen Lord shine upon your homes and remain with you always. – Pastoral Team
