STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

Making Christ Manifest to all the World

The Epiphany of Our Lord

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. The word epiphany comes from the Greek Epiphainen, a verb that means “to manifest” or “to make known.” This is what God did in the Incarnation. He made Himself known to humanity. One principle event is the visit of the foreign Magi, representing all the nations coming to know Christ.

Even 2000 years later, Christ still desires to make Himself known to the ends of the earth and we as stewards have the great privilege of helping in this important mission. The USCCB in their Pastoral Letter on Stewardship* says that “God wishes human beings to be his collaborators in the work of creation, redemption, and sanctification; and such collaboration involves stewardship in its most profound sense.” The USCCB also says that the “practice of authentic Christian stewardship inevitably leads to evangelization.”

Therefore, to be true and authentic stewards means that we cannot keep the gift of the Gospel for ourselves, but we must go out into the world and proclaim it to others. How often do we realize our important role in evangelization? Let us strive to use our time and talents well by sharing the faith with those around us, with our family members, our co-workers and our neighbors. Perhaps one tangible act we can do this week is invite someone we know who has fallen away from their faith to join us for Mass next Sunday. In doing this, we will take seriously the dismissal at the end of Mass to “go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.”

Summary

On this feast day we celebrate the visit of the foreign Magi which represents all the nations coming to know Christ. Even 2000 years later, Christ still desires to make Himself known to the ends of the earth and we as stewards have the great privilege of helping in this important mission. We cannot keep the gift of the Gospel for ourselves, but we must use our God-given time and talents to go out into the world and proclaim it to others.

VOCATION

"On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid Him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh." EUCARISTIC MIRACLES OF THE WORLD EXHIBIT AND VENERATION OF RELICS (JANUARY 10th – 25th, 2026)

St. Carlo Acutis called the Eucharist his highway to heaven. He bridged faith and science to design and create the Vatican-approved Eucharistic Miracles of the World Exhibit. The exhibit features panels that each tell the story of a Eucharistic miracle and allow you to "virtually visit" the places where the miracles took place. The exhibit's purpose is to increase awareness of the Real Presence of our Lord in the Eucharist and promote Eucharistic Adoration.

The exhibit is coming back to our Parish on January 10-25, 2026.

On the last day of the exhibit, Sunday, January 25, 2026, the relics of St. Carlo Acutis and St. Pier Giorgio Frassati, will be present for blessing and veneration at the 12:30pm Mass.
