CONGRATULATIONS CONFIRMANDI

Congratulations to all the children who received their Confirmation this year! May the Holy Spirit continue to guide you, inspire you, and fill your hearts with love and faith as you grow in your journey with Christ. A special thanks our confirmation catechists and to all the volunteers whose time, energy, and love made this year's sacramental preparation a true blessing for these young people.

FROM THE PASTORS DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

From the bottom of my heart — thank you. From June 5th to June 13th, we gathered as one family for nine beautiful days of Special Novena and Special Mass, celebrating fifty years of God's faithfulness to our beloved parish. These nine days were heart-touching, soul-stirring, and deeply inspiring. They reminded us of who we are, where we came from, and how far God has carried us — through every joy, every struggle, every season of abundance, and every moment of trial. Through it all, He has been faithful. He has always been faithful.

None of what we experienced happened by chance. Behind every beautiful moment was a person — or many people — who gave their time, energy, heart, and soul without hesitation. Countless volunteers, parishioners, and staff members worked tirelessly, many of them never seeking recognition, never asking for applause. They simply showed up, day after day, and gave everything they had. To every single one of you — our priests and deacons, our servers and lectors, our Eucharistic ministers, our five choirs, our procession teams, our decoration and gardening team, our food committee, our artisans who crafted the beautiful Baldachin for the Eucharistic Procession our T-shirt and raffle teams, our memorabilia book team, our photo and social media team, our live streaming team, our Knights of Columbus, our ushers, our blood donors, and every volunteer who served quietly behind the scenes — this celebration was yours as much as it was ours.

Many of you served on multiple teams. Many of you worked through the night. Many of you gave what you did not have to spare, and the world may not have seen it — but I saw you. And God saw you. This parish would not be what it is today without your selfless, loving, and devoted hands.

As we celebrate these fifty years of blessings, we also turn our hearts to those who came before us — our beloved deceased pastors, priests, deacons, and parishioners who once dreamed this parish into existence. They prayed. They sacrificed. They built something they believed in with all their heart — a home rooted in faith, in togetherness, in love, and in the powerful intercession of our patron, Saint Anthony of Padua. We are the fruit of their faithfulness, and we carry their legacy forward with gratitude and with pride.

JUNE 21st – JUNE 27th 2026

Every sacrifice, every sleepless night, every quiet act of love — He saw it, He recorded it, and He will reward it.

To our Lord, I say with a full and grateful heart: Thank You, Lord. For fifty years, you have walked with us. You have never left us. You have turned our tears into testimonies and our faith into a family.

May our beloved patron, Saint Anthony of Padua, continue to intercede for each and every one of you, now and always. To God be the glory — for fifty years, and for all the years still to come.

With all my love and deepest gratitude,

Your Pastor,
Fr. Jibin Joy
