Calendar of Saints

Saint Anne and Saint Joachim, July 26

The gospels are bereft of details regarding Mary's parents – Jesus' grandparents – not even offering their names. What we do know comes from writings excluded from the canon of Scripture, in particular the Protogospel of James. Nevertheless, the cult of Saint Anne existed in the 6th century in the Church of Constantinople and early in the 8th century in Rome. In the 8th century in Rome. In the 13th and 14th centuries, popular devotion to Anne increased, as seen by the number of churches bearing her name. At the request of some English bishops petitioned by parishioners, Pope Urban VI made her feast an annual celebration. Joachim has been honoured in the East from earliest days, but in the West only since the 16th century. Their names were entered into the Roman calendar in 1584.

We extend a warm welcome to those visiting our Parish today

Thank you so much to everyone that donated and/or prayed for my upcoming, year long mission trip with NET Canada! I'm so touched by the generous and loving response that I received from the parish. I will carry you all in my prayers through my travels in this next year, and hope that you will keep me in your own prayers. God Bless you all! Love, Gloria.

News from Chemin Neuf - Introducing the Bhaga family! Chemin Neuf Community (located across the street from the parish at the St. Charles Retreat Centre) is pleased to be soon welcome a new family to Winnipeg and to our parish: Kevin & Anne-Lise Bhaga and their two children Elie (age 3) and Mila (age 7 months). Originally from the island of Mauritius, they have spent the last five years in France with Chemin Neuf. We are looking for an apartment or house to rent as close to the parish as possible. Also, Kevin will be looking for a job - in construction, handyman, etc. (he worked for six years as professional golf caddy, but we explained this is probably not a career choice for Winnipeg!). He speaks English and French. They have arrived June 30, and will live at the retreat centre until accommodations are found. We are also looking for everything a young family will need to set up in a new country: good used car for purchase, furniture, household goods, etc. Contact Nancy Wood at: 204-885-2260
