 EASTER

First Reading: Acts 2.14, 22b-28
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16
Second Reading: 1 Peter 1.17-21
Gospel: Luke 24.13-35

You expired, O Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You. Amen.

Thank You

Thank you to our parishioners who have dropped off or mailed their offering envelopes to the Rectory and to parishioners who have been keeping us all in their prayers during this time.

Divine Mercy is all about people like us: poor, sinful, weak souls. So every one of us who thinks our mess is too great for God – think again. The weaker we are, the more miserable we are, the more we attract His mercy. The more He wants to run to us and save us with His merciful love.

So if you struggle, Divine Mercy is for you. (Basically, it's for every single soul.) So getting close to Him? Jesus comes to us Himself – to scoop us up in His arms and draw us to His Heart.

Jesus said to St. Faustina, “I want you to be very little, because when you are little, I carry you close to My Heart. Because you are weak, I take you in My arms and carry you to the home of My Father.” The only thing He needs from us for Him to do that? Trust. What does trust look like practically?

It's believing. Believing, no matter how great your sin, your weaknesses, your circumstances, whatever — believing that He is God, and He can do everything. In I Believe in Love, d'Elbée writes about the Good Thief: Then he looks deep into the eyes of Jesus and reads there, who He is: the gentle Savior... And the ineffable answer is “Amen, I say to you, this day, you shall be with Me in Paradise” For you, no Hell, not a second of Purgatory. The confident look you gave me, this meeting of our eyes, in my mercy and in your faith, has purified you in an instant and rendered us inseparable... Jesus needs nothing but your humility and your confidence [trust] to work marvels of purification in you.

It's literally that simple. Jesus can bind up and heal your soul in an instant, according to the measure of your trust in Him. The more you trust and believe in His everlasting love and His almighty ability to transform you into Himself — that's how much He'll change you. So whenever you struggle in any circumstances, whenever you fall into sin — stop yourself when you feel discouragement, anxiety, or worry coming. Look to Jesus in your heart, and tell Him you trust Him in an act of your will, even if your feelings of trust aren't there. He is. He's waiting for you. Simply run to Him and trust. It's simple to trust, but not easy. If you still struggle with trust, take it to Mary, His mother. She takes care of everything.
