READINGS FOR March 7 3rd Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Exodus 20.1-17

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1.18, 22-25

Gospel: John 3.16

Simply put, Lent is a time to examine our lives and to see our sins most clearly. It's a time we are given each year to pause from the confusion of life and to reexamine the road we are on. Looking at our sins can be hard. It can be depressing and can tempt us to depression, hopelessness and even despair. But the temptation to despair must be overcome. And it is not overcome by ignoring our sin, rather, it is overcome by turning our eyes to the power and glory of God.

The Transfiguration is an event given to these three Apostles to give them hope as they prepare to face the suffering and death of Jesus. They are given this glimpse of glory and hope as they prepare to see Jesus embrace their sins and endure the consequences.

If we face sin without hope, we are doomed. But if we face sin (our sin) with a remembrance of Who Jesus is and what He has done for us, then facing our sin will lead us not into despair but into victory and glory.

As the Apostles looked on and saw Jesus transfigured, they heard a voice from Heaven say, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (Mt. 17:5b).

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart.
In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good,
I have sinned against You
Whom I should love above all things,
I firmly intend, with Your help, to do penance,
to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.
Our Saviour Jesus Christ,
suffered and died for us.
In His name, my God, have mercy. Amen.

My transfigured Lord,
You shone in radiance
before the eyes of Your Apostles so that they could testify to the beauty of the life
to which we are all called. During this Lent, help me to face
my sin with courage
and confidence in
You and in Your power to not only forgive but to also transform. My I die to sin more deeply than ever before so as to share more fully in the glory of Your divine life. Jesus, I trust in You.
