Leaving Before Dismissal - Showing Respect

Much of church etiquette is based on common sense and showing respect for God and others.

Leaving church before the Dismissal - besides being rude - deprives us of a blessing - May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Go forth, the Mass is ended.

To leave immediately after Communion is to treat church like a fast food restaurant where we come and go as we please. We live in a fast paced world where we seem to be hurrying from place to place. But in God's presence, we need to make every attempt to fight this pressure to move on to the next thing on the day's agenda.

We deprive ourselves of blessings by not being still and participating in God's holiness for a few minutes more. Eat and run at McDonald's - but please stay in church and thank God for his precious gifts.
