The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast of Pentecost is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

There is a link on the St. John/St.Philomena's website to the Archdiocese of Kingston website. You can find daily Masses, prayer resources and important announcements from the Archbishop. Please access St. John/St. Philomena's website at stjohnsgananoque.ca often, as Fr. Dale has updates regularly, and there is a new bulletin weekly. See the Update on COVID-19 and the re-opening of Churches letter from May 31, 2020 on St. John's website.

If you haven't sent your Parish Registration Form back to the Office, please do, as it is important to have current information on file. Even if you do not use envelopes, please return your form. Thanks to all who have taken the time to fill them out and return them.

Happy Birthday to parishioners with birthdays in June. Fr. Dale will remember you in the prayers of the faithful on Sunday. Have a lovely day!
