There is a link on the St. John/St.Philomena's website to the Archdiocese of Kingston website. You can find daily Masses, prayer resources and important announcements from the Archbishop. Please access St. John/St. Philomena's website at stjohnstphil@gmail.com often, as Fr. Dale has updates regularly, and there is a new bulletin weekly.

If you haven't sent your Parish Registration Form back to the Office, please do, as it is important to have current information on file. Even if you do not use envelopes, please return your form. Thanks to all who have taken the time to fill them out and return them.

The Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship, but to keep her on her course.

- St. Boniface

A completely new thing took place in heaven; at the Ascension the angels worship human nature in the Person of Jesus Christ for the first time, ever.

When we reflect on the Ascension, we should remember that this is the future glory that we are meant for; in God's mercy he has restored us to Himself through His Son.

In fact, Jesus told his disciples that unless he ascended to heaven, the Holy Spirit would not come to them. This period of 9 days that the Apostles prayed and waited, from the Ascension to Pentecost, was the Church's first novena, and the biblical precedent for all the various novenas that believers pray today.

Happy Birthday to those who have had and who are yet to celebrate their Birthday in May. Fr. Dale includes you in the Prayer of the Faithful during Mass on Sunday.
