THANK YOU FOR PRAYING FOR ME:

For those who are sick, undergoing treatments, in palliative care - may they find strength and healing through prayers; and for support of caregivers and loved ones. We pray for parishioners, family, friends, Paul O'Neil, Jason Portieous and Ken Stewart.

Prayer for Eternal Life Please remember family and friends who have entered into eternal life including Maureen Anne Gervais and Donald James Cox.

Ringing of the Bells Thank you to Father Dale, Wayne Carpenter, Tom Dillon and Stephen Beardwood, for ringing the bells 100 times last Sunday to mark the hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice to end the First World War. The bells rang to reflect on the loss of life and sacrifices made by soldiers and their families to bring peace to the world and preserve our freedom.

World Day of the Poor

Loving God, You hear the cry of each of your children, and especially those who are poor and suffering.

We pray that we too might hear the cries of people in need:

The family crying out for food ...

The migrant child crying out for his mother ...

The youth crying out for education ...

The farmer crying out for rains for his harvest

The trafficked and abused, crying out for freedom ...

All of who are poor and vulnerable, crying out for help ...

Lord, open our hearts that we may hear the cries of the poor as you do and respond as your hands and feet on earth.

Month of November
St. John Church & St. Philomena Church

Every November, the Church reminds us to pray for the faithful departed. Do offer a prayer for their souls. It might have been many years since they died, but it is comforting that there is no time with God; everything is present with Him, and no prayers will go to waste.

Visit a cemetery. Each visit is an opportunity to observe, to rest, to listen, and to pray. Having the familiarity with cemeteries keeps our departed brothers and sisters in Christ in the forefront of our minds.

Catholic Women's League
Membership Drive

Catholic Women's League members are available after Mass to guide you if you wish to join, to pay for your annual fee, or to answer your questions.

You may pay your $25 fee by using the CWL blue envelope provided in your Offertory Box or directly to the member present at the Church.

As members, we pray for one another and are women of action. We care for the less fortunate and support our parishes of St. John the Evangelist and St. Philomena. Please join us, as together we develop and share our ministry.

A Book of Remembrance

You are invited to write down the names of deceased loved ones to be prayed for during Masses in November. The books are available for your entries throughout November.

Our Restoration Project

As you can see from the upper right side of the high altar and the lower left side of the high altar, damage to the paint & wall is getting worse. The Catholic Mutual Insurance will not be helping us as the damage was not caused by a one-time-event. We will need your support during our fundraising today and those in the future.

The Finance and Property Committee will be in contact with contractors suggested to us from other churches. Foremost, we need to understand why is the paint peeling 8 years after being applied. If you have any explanations, please let us know.

Gift of a Mass

Examples: $20 Mass Offering: For Jamie - for a great sport year (names announced). $10 Mass Offering: For special intentions (names are recorded, but not written in bulletin or said out loud).

Give a gift of a Mass for someone's birthday, to someone who is ill or undergoing surgery - * Support a Mass for their intentions * Request envelopes are found at the entrance of Church.
