READINGS FOR October 3, Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Genesis 2.7ab, 15, 18-24

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 128

Second Reading: Hebrews 2.9-11

Gospel: Mark 10.2-16

The disciples observed that the unknown exorcist invoked Jesus' name and was successful in his healing efforts. This unknown healer recognized the power of Jesus' name, yet he was not a follower of Jesus. In his reply to his disciples, Jesus acknowledges that deeds of faith can precede the words of faith. He also teaches that the disciples should not be reluctant to share Jesus' healing powers with others. Later in this Gospel, Jesus teaches us not to create obstacles for those who are just beginning to have faith but to encourage even the smallest signs of faith. The Greek word used here for sin also connotes "stumbling" or "causing scandal." In vivid terms Jesus teaches his disciples the consequences to those who would put obstacles before people who are on the road to faith.

POPE FRANCIS' INTENTION FOR OCTOBER - Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavour of the Gospel.

Truth and Reconciliation
Day, September 30

Orange Shirt Day is a national movement that brings together Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in the spirit of reconciliation to honour residential school survivors and their families. September 30 was chosen because it's the time of year when children went to residential schools.

Orange Shirt Day is an opportunity for us to come together in the spirit of reconciliation and hope for generations of children to come.
