Dying with Christ – Living with Hope Series. A powerful three-part video series is meant to help demystify death and the dying process while offering a faith-filled perspective on end-of-life questions. Through videos led by theologians and healthcare professionals and small group attendee discussions, we will explore suffering, grief, dying, and our duty to care for one another. Discover how, through a commitment to die with Christ, we can truly live with hope. Wednesday evenings in-person in the church hall at 7:00 p.m. on April 8, 15, and 22. A $10 donation per participant is recommended to help defray program costs - this will be collected at the event. For more information and to register, please go to: https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/dying-with-christ-living-with-hope-tickets-1984888112777?aff=oddtcreator. Spots are limited!

The CWL will be having a General Meeting on April 7th after the 7pm mass. This meeting will be to discuss the Instructed vote as well as other business.

The CWL would like to thank everyone who donated monetary and food gifts to Canadian Food for Children in March. We raised $2,122 and filled a van of food to be distributed to the poor in the third world country. Thank you for your great generosity and may God bless you.

Works of Mercy can serve as a guide for care for creation

Instructing the ignorant: becomes educating ourselves and those close to us about ecological challenges and actions that we might engage in. The Laudato Si' Movement and Catholic Climate Covenant websites are just two among the organizations that can provide education and action suggestions. Read Laudato Si' a copy of which is in our library or read it on the Vatican website.

Facing the challenges of climate change, water, food and energy crises are serious moral matters. And, yet, in following the call to live and act responsibly by caring for the future, wonderful opportunities and gifts of community, relationships, new knowledge, creativity, beauty and joy unfold. We become more aware of the fullness of life, the holiness of God! – Catholic Update Oct 2008

Easter Meal Prayer

Gracious God, on this day of joy and renewal, we thank You for the gift of life, the love of family and friends, and the blessings before us. May this food nourish our bodies, and may Your hope and peace fill our hearts. As we celebrate the risen Christ, help us to share kindness, forgiveness, and joy with all we meet. Amen.
