Who may receive communion

We welcome visitors to our parish, Catholic and non-Catholic. We receive many enquiries as to who may receive communion at a Roman Catholic Mass. We hope the following helps to clarify:

- a) Non-Roman Catholics, even though they receive in their own denomination, may not receive communion in the Roman Catholic tradition, since for us the reception of Eucharist includes an assertion that the recipient accepts the fullness of the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, including the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the primacy of the Holy Father in matters of faith and morals, the total rejection of abortion, and so on. Non-Roman Catholics are welcome to receive a blessing (signify this by crossing the arms over the chest). Non-Roman Catholics interested in becoming Roman Catholic should contact our parish office.*
 - b) Roman Catholics who are not married according to the practice of the Roman Catholic Church (i.e. within a Roman Catholic ceremony, or, if outside, with the proper dispensation before the wedding, or with convalidation following the wedding) may not receive the Eucharist until their situation has been regularized (contact the Parish office), but may receive a blessing (see above).*
 - c) Roman Catholics who do not attend Roman Catholic Mass weekly, except when it is because of medical reasons, must receive the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) before receiving the Eucharist. They are always welcome to receive a blessing.*
- Since the Eucharist is the Asource and summit of our Catholic faith@, we appreciate the appropriate respect shown to the Eucharist and its reception.*

SEASON OF CREATION

Sept 1st – Oct 4th celebration of prayer and action to protect creation

Week Two Prayer

Loving God,
You saw everything that you had made – and it was very good.
We are awed by what we see that is still good but weep for what we have spoilt.
Give us the heart and will in our living and praying to restore all creation to the very good.
So we may show our love to you, the Lord of love.
Amen

"For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." The community that gathers needs

Parenting Tip of the Month: As summer ends and school begins, it is time to get back to a more scheduled lifestyle. As you organize your family, remember that our priorities are what we give the most time to and what we schedule time for, so do not forget to schedule family time, prayer time and Church attendance into your schedule. Place these items on the calendar because they matter to your whole family and seeing them there raises up their importance!

Marriage Tip of the Month: When asked what matters most to someone who is married, people often answer my wife/husband and children. It is important to see if your actions reflect that belief. Do you spend time together daily talking about your day and important matters? Do you plan a date night with your spouse (even if it is from home), so your children see the love you share? Do you do little tasks that need doing without being asked? Do you compliment your spouse and tell them you love them? What we do tells others what matters – be sure your spouse knows they do!
