TRINITY SUNDAY

In the Creed we declare that we “believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth”. By saying this we affirm God is the ultimate cause of the being of things. Just as the creation he has made speaks of his steadfast love, even more because his nature is Love and he is a Trinity of Persons there is perfect communication between the Three in One. When we have this understanding of the relationship between God and the Creation we can appreciate then that the entire physical world is a mirror of God’s manner of being. So when we speak of Trinity as the inter relationship between persons this is not some fanciful counterintuitive doctrine. Within the unity of God there is an imaging process. The Father from all eternity produces the perfect image of himself. This perfect image we call the Son. The mirroring process we see below in creation is an analogy of the image we see in God. While a mirror cannot produce a perfect image of me, for it is two dimensional and is only my reflection, the Father can produce 3 perfect image of himself. In the Son is the perfect image of the mind, will, power, simplicity love, and compassion of the Father. In the Son we see the incarnate expression of merciful steadfast nature of God that has been from eternity to eternity.
