Fri. April 25th, 2025

Reflection: On Palm Sunday, we remember Jesus' love. He rode a donkey, not a grand horse, showing humility. People waved palms, welcoming Him like a king. But Jesus is a different kind of king – a king of love and sacrifice. He knew His path meant pain, yet He walked it for us. The palms we hold remind us to follow Him, even when it is difficult to do so. Life brings us struggles, but love can conquer all. Let us reflect on this day and embrace the challenges we face, with the knowledge that Jesus walks beside us. In our trials, we are encouraged to remember His strength. His love will guide us in the same way He journeyed through Jerusalem towards the Cross. Palm Sunday reminds us to trust and follow Jesus, for He is our King. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.

VIRTUE OF THE MONTH - APRIL

During the month of April, Sudbury Catholic Schools are celebrating the value of STEWARDSHIP.

Throughout the month students will participate in activities in the classroom and on the yard to encourage and promote the value of Stewardship. We will be relating the topic of stewardship to our work and responsibility as keepers of the beautiful world God has given us. Please pray for our Catholic School staff and students as they continue to put virtues into action.

Christ the King is having a takeout penne pasta dinner on Saturday, May 3, 2025. Meals can be picked up from 4 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. tickets must be purchased in advance $20 for adults
