Reflection: On Easter morning, the tomb stood bare – a tale of hope beyond compare.

In John's gospel, this tale unfolds – a story of faith, in whispers told. Mary came, her heart weighed down, empty tomb, no body found. Swift she ran to Peter and John, sharing the news, the truth was drawn. John believed, and faith took flight. Peter embraced the light. In the empty tomb, a truth profound, hope and love forever unbound. This Easter, let our spirits sing, Resurrection's glorious, eternal spring. Rise from the shadows, let hope renew; Jesus lives, His promise is true. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.
