When Jesus greeted the Apostle Thomas, he said "Peace be with you." With His death and Resurrection

Jesus brought peace to the world.

This week, pray with our children for the grace to find ways to bring peace to this world, just as Jesus did.

Reflection: The Divine Mercy Sunday celebration is a beautiful reminder of God's boundless love. Jesus appears to His frightened disciples, offering peace and mercy, even when they doubted. His wounds symbolize His love overcoming our doubts and fears. Like Thomas, we often doubt and need tangible signs of God's love. But Jesus gently invites us to believe without seeing, to have faith in His endless mercy. He understands our struggles and patiently waits for us. Divine Mercy Sunday assures us that God forgives and loves us, no matter our past. Jesus' words "Peace be with you," echo in our hearts, calming our anxieties. Open your hearts to this incredible mercy and embrace God's love, seeking forgiveness and sharing it with others. For His mercy, we find peace and joy. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.
