Reflection: The evangelist notes that "the doors were closed" to make the point that now Jesus has a different kind of existence. His earthly life was over. He now has a risen body. St. Paul qualifies the risen body as imperishable, powerful, glorious and spiritual as opposed to a perishable, weak, dishonorable and natural earthly body (cf. 1Cor 15:42-44). Apostle Thomas would not believe the testimony of his companions. Thomas said "Unless I see... I refuse to believe". He insisted on a personal experience. It appears to more of an insistence of love than an expression of disbelief on the part of Thomas. He was not willing to accept that Jesus could deprive him of that much -awaited experience. Besides, what he had insisted was to have a close experience of the holes made by the nails that pierced the hands of Jesus and the wound that created on his side by the lance. Thomas loved a suffering Christ.

Human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships: with God, with our neighbour and the with the earth itself. Laudato Si'. 66
April 22nd, Earth Day seeks to highlight and promote efforts dedicated to the protection of the environment. As we enter the 21st century, we face many environmental crises including global warming, deforestation, endangered wildlife, shortages of potable water, and widespread pollution. These crises negatively affect our planet's resources, and they pose serious risk to our long-term lifestyles and health. "Invest in Our Planet." The environment is one of the responsibilities of the Education and Health and the Social Justice committees. They will focus on the environment through some Care for Our Common Home initiatives throughout 2023.

The CWL SSM Diocesan Convention is in Sudbury this weekend. Please pray for our members for safe travels from & to their home communities, for spiritual centeredness and JOYful communication at this special time.
