Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, August 17, 2025

Please note the parish office is closed from August 16th –Sept 1st. We will resume regular office hours on Tues. Sept. 2nd @ 8:30am.

We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life. Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office. Mass intention cards are available in the parish office.

Sometimes, life is difficult. We may not always understand what is happening, nor will we like what is happening. These are the times when we need to trust in God and believe that he will love us and take care of us. Pray with our children for the grace to remember that God is always there for us.

Reflection: It is very surprising to hear Jesus say, "He has come not for peace, but division." As we know he always spoke in parables or in metaphors. This statement is metaphoric. Jesus speaks radical truth, and whoever speaks the truth is not always accepted; this will always cause division in the camp of those who hide the truth. The love and flame of His message can separate people. Jesus did not compromise the truth, so being a Christian is not democratic, where a majority carries the vote. It is an invitation to follow in the footsteps of our Model and Master, live out our Christian calling to the core, even if it means separation from or confrontations with our closest family, friends and neighbours. I pray that all the people around the world will have that peace that comes from doing His will, and in turn share that peace with the whole worlds. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.
