Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, August 3, 2025

We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life. Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office. Mass intention cards are available in the parish office.

Jesus taught His friends, not to be greedy. Having money and things cannot bring eternal happiness and everlasting life.

Pray with our children for the grace to understand that Jesus is the treasure that we seek.

Reflection: "Take care to guard against all greed." Greed arises when our heart loves material things and possessions in selfish and disordered ways. Good created "things" for a purpose; to help us fulfil our mission in this life. Our heart can grow to love these things and to love accumulating wealth for its own sake, not for the purpose of using it to fulfil our mission and save our soul. St. Paul exhorts us to "put to death the greed that is idolatry" (Col 3:5) Our true treasure is being a child of God, having received new life in Christ. Living in a way that contradicts this fundamental orientation of our conscience and to ask the Lord to remove any attachments that deflect the action of grace in our souls.
