We listen to Jesus' call to be generous and think about the gifts we can share with others.

Congratulations!

Christ the King Parish expresses its congratulations and deep appreciation to Bruce Chrichton for 25 years of faithful service as caretaker of our parish. During this time, Bruce has quietly and faithfully served the parish in the background of parish life. He has cleaned the church, prepared the liturgical space for important celebrations and observances, cleared away snow, maintained the parish grounds and generally helped ensure that the parish is well maintained and ready for use at all times - all with little fanfare. It is time to give Bruce a little of the fanfare he so richly deserves. Congratulations Bruce on a job well done! The parish thanks you deeply for all you have done for us!
