THE ANNUAL WORLD-WIDE WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY COMES TO AN END

On Wednesday Jan. 25, our Catholic Church observes the annual "Feast of the Conversion of the Apostle St. Paul". This concludes, for many Christians around the world the annual WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY. This time of prayer has been observed since 1968.

During that week, since then, many Christian communities around the world, who are dismayed at the lack of unity for which Jesus prayed at the last Supper (see John 21:20), have gathered together in dialogue, action and prayer. Here at Christ the King, this year we have prayed each day of the week for a healing of what still divides Christians from one another over the last 2000 years.

The scandal of division goes back to the time even of the Apostles in the first century. Since then, the divisions with which we are most familiar date from 1054 - with the emergence of many communities in the eastern part of Europe who split from Rome to become the "ORTHODOX"- of which there are four in our city. Then of course we are even more familiar with the major split that began around 1517 with the emergence of the communities called "PROTESTANT"- of which there are many in our city.

There is such a gathering, on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at 3 p.m. at GRACE UNITED CHURCH, 1520 Bancroft Dr. Please join us.
