PARISH NEWS

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of the parishioners who volunteered their time and gifts to make our Christmas Celebrations so very special at our parish. Thanks also to the people who expressed their care and support of me, as pastor, in the form of Christmas cards and gifts. It has truly been a source of encouragement to me as your pastor. May God bless each of you and your families in this New Year and always.

Fr. Jim K

JESSE TREE REPORT... Thank you all for your generosity to the Food Bank in memory of our home-bound seniors!! With your $1227.00 donation they were well remembered. One person tucked their Jesse Tree envelope into their Sunday collection envelope. We missed putting your envelope number on it... therefore, we could not identify you for a tax receipt. Please call me if you know this was you. Terry @ 705-522-3713. Thanks.

Kids Corner...

On the Feast of the Epiphany we learn about the Three Wisemen who followed a star to find Jesus. These men, when they found the Infant worshiped Him and gave Him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. The children had the opportunity to touch and smell gold, frankincense and myrrh today. Pray with our children for the grace to find ways to follow the example of these Wisemen and to worship Jesus in our daily lives.
