LOST & FOUND! 2 WEEKS LEFT!!

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS!!

Please help us in clearing out the 'Lost and Found' that has accumulated over the past several months. Everything has been spread out on tables at the back of the church for people to easily see. If anything belongs to you or someone you know, please take it with you. Anything left behind after a few weeks will be either donated or thrown away. Thanks!

Just as the Good Samaritan helped the man who was hurt, Jesus asks us to look after others. Pray with our children for the grace and courage to help people who need help.

Just a reminder...

Altar Servers meeting every second Saturday of the month @ 10:00am in the Sacristy.
Please plan to attend!!

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

Congratulations to Adrian Muzzatti and Gabrielle Conrad who celebrated the Sacrament of Marriage on June 28. Justin Muzzatti was the best man and Carlee Parisotto was the maid of honour.

Deacon Roland had the wonderful blessing of officiating at this wedding.

Please pray for this couple that they may grow daily in their mutual love and that God in his kindness may sustain them with his blessings and his help.

Reflection: Even though the evangelist reckons that the motivation of the teacher who questioned Jesus was malicious, the question, nonetheless, was apt, since humanity's ultimate destiny was the subject of the question. In His response, Jesus tells us that to inherit eternal life, we must:

- Look to the Law for direction and guidance.
- We must love God supremely above all else that is or will be.
- Our love of God must be concrete. It must be evident in the love we have for ourselves and our neighbours.
- We must love ourselves since there is nothing Christian about self-inflicted lack and self-hate.

If you desire eternal life, you must love God, your neighbour, and yourself. And in all these you must allow yourself to be consistently guided by God's law.
