Reflection: Many believers have fallen into the error of thinking that the virtue of patients is bad for the faith. The view has gradually led many to lose sight of the graces inherent in this virtue. Today, Jesus instructs us concerning the great benefits of persistent patience. Persistent patience means patience that is not sleeping or waiting inactively for solutions to come, but aggressively (in spiritual terms) insistent in its communications with God. Many misunderstand patience to be lazy waiting for manna to fall. This is a misguided position; it will surely lead to religious lethargy and spiritual dryness. Patience is never an isolated virtue, its always understood in relation to its ultimate end, that is God. Our one mode of communication with God is prayer. Our part in this dialogue, if it is to bear fruit, is hidden in the virtue of patience. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.
