Jesus wanted to rest with his disciples. While things did not turn out as planned, we can remember that Jesus wants us all to enjoy the beauty of this weather and this place that He has prepared for us. Pray with our children in gratitude to God for the tremendous gifts he has given to us.

Reflection: "They will eat and have some left over," says the Lord. The readings today present us with the benevolence of God who satisfies the needs of all His creatures. We also see the miracle of multiplication, aided by the generosity of those who made available the few loaves and fish in their hands. God is still doing this miracle of multiplication in our time. What loaves and fish are in your hands that God desires to use to meet the needs of the poor and needy around you? These loaves and fish could be your talent, your word of advice, your physical energy, your money, your position, your prayerfulness, your time, your listening ears, and so on. How can you, with whatever gift you have, put a smile on someone's face? God is our Father; we are all children of this one Father. Let us each be another Elisha, another Christ to feed the hungry around us. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024'

BAPTISM

Congratulations to the following child who was baptized in our parish recently.

Nova-Lee, daughter of Kevin-Lee Dugit and Shannon Perreault (godparents: Michael Daoust and Brandee Ouellet)

Welcome to the newest member of our Christian community! Pray that this child may be constantly renewed by the life of the Spirit that dwells within her.

We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life.
Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office. Mass intention cards are available upon request.

Please assist us in our project to rebuild the church front stairs.
Please make sure to clearly write
'FRONT STEPS' on your donation!

is an ongoing program and we continue to take orders for plaques. Please consider purchasing a plaque or spread the word to past parishioners and their
