Reflection: The flesh and blood of the Son of Man denote the Redeemer in the nature of man – Christ and Him crucified, and the redemption achieved by Him, along with all the precious benefits of that redemption. These benefits include the pardon of sin, acceptance with God, the path to the throne of grace, the promises of the covenant, and eternal life. They are referred to as the flesh and blood of Christ because they are purchased through the breaking of His body and the shedding of His blood. Furthermore, they serve as the spiritual sustenance to our souls. To eat this flesh and drink this blood signifies belief in Christ and His benefits through faith.
