One day, while praying to His Father, Jesus' appearance changed. His face and clothes shone with a brilliant and dazzling light. Like Jesus, we too, can be God's light in this world by doing good deeds and living the way God wants us to live.

Pray with our children for the grace to bring God's light into this world, always.

 First Friday Devotion
Friday, March 6th, 2026
 Time: 4:30pm at Christ the King Church

Reflection: The Transfiguration of the Lord – on a mountain – invites us to experience life from a divine perspective; throwing ourselves into God's hands and receiving His gifts. Mountains play a key role in the Gospel of St. Matthew. In this lofty and high Place of the Presence of God – a mountain – Jesus undergoes His Transfiguration, and is joined by the presence of two other 'mountain' personalities – Moses and Elijah! Just as Jesus was transfigured on a mountain, we too are called to be transfigured in our lives. We all need 'Transfiguration Moments' in our lives - to see the way God sees us, to hear what God wants us to and to look at life in the way that God perceives. Let us take courage, and accompany the Lord beyond the peripheral problems of life, and climb the mountain of spiritual closeness, as we share in the joy of the Transfiguration!
