on Sunday, May 11, during 10: 15 a.m. Mass

When Jesus took Peter, James and John up the mountain to pray and was joined by Moses and Elijah, his clothes became shining white. We too can show the world the light of Jesus in our words and in our actions.

Pray with our children for the grace to bring Jesus' light into this world by doing good deeds or saying nice things.

Reflection: The glorified Jesus represents the fulfillment of the Old Testament revelation, symbolised by Moses, representing the Law, and Elijah, representing the prophets. The Torah was given to the people so that they might become a priestly and holy nation, a people set apart, in the hope that they would function as a sort of magnet to the rest of the world, but they turned away from its dictates and become as bad as the nations around them. Then came the prophets who reminded them repeatedly to repent for their sinfulness. Finally, Jesus came and did what no one had ever done: fulfilled the Law and remained utterly obedient even to the point of laying down His life. In Him was the fulfillment of the Torah and the prophets. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'.
