Thank you for your generosity!

When Jesus entered Jerusalem, he was greeted like a King. He came with his message of peace and love. Instead, He suffered and died on the cross for our salvation. Pray with our children for the grace to bring peace and love into daily life as a way to thank Him for this sacrifice.

Reflection: Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week, inviting us to journey alongside Jesus with renewed faith, hope and love. As we hold our palms – symbols of both triumph and sacrifice – we celebrate Christ’s entry into Jerusalem as the Prince of Peace, not with the pomp of earthly power but with the humility of a servant. ‘No Cross, no crown! No wounds, no blessings!’ These palms, fresh and green, remind us of our commitment to Him. Yet, in days, they will dry, urging us to keep our spirit alive even when faced with trials. To make this a truly ‘holy’ week, let us engage in daily prayer, read Scripture, and reflect on the Passion of Christ. We need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation to mend our relationship with God and others, fostering forgiveness and healing. We also need to reach out to those in need to deepen our solidarity with the sufferings of Christ. As we prepared to leave the safety of the crowd and climb Calvary? Today as our hearts echo, ‘Hosanna’, let us remain faithful to our Crucified Lord as we prepare to proclaim, ‘Alleluia! He is risen!’ ‘God’s Word, Daily Reflections 2026’
