Water is a sign or symbol of life.

Jesus offered the woman at the well “Living Water” or water that would give eternal life. At our Baptism, the gift of eternal life through the Holy Spirit is poured into us.

Pray with our children in gratitude for the gift of living water that brings eternal life.

Reflection: Our soul thirsts for the Divine – a yearning often mistaken as a desire for the worldly satisfactions, yet fulfilled only in Christ. Each of us, deep within, are thirsty and hungry, wanting to drink water that will quench the longing, forever. Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman reminds us that temporary pleasures and fleeting joys never satisfy our deepest needs. Like her, we are called to find life-transforming fulfillment in the Lord alone, the source of eternal life. When we seek Christ sincerely, He offers us not just comfort but lasting joy, fulfilling us with 'a spring of water welling up to eternal life'. Let us return to Him, quenching our thirst in His endless love and divine peace.
